ALLIOT TECHNOLOGIES TO DISTRIBUTE MULTITECH GATEWAYS

Leading IoT distributor, Alliot Technologies to bring industry-leading MultiTech gateway range to new customers in the UK & Ireland.

Huddersfield, West Yorkshire, UK / July 29th 2020 – Specialist European IoT distributor, Alliot Technologies has today announced a new partnership with industry leaders, MultiTech. This new agreement sees Alliot expand its LoRaWAN[®] gateway range throughout the UK and Ireland.

Commenting on their new official distributor status, Alliot's Product Development Director, Paul Hayes said, "MultiTech are well renowned for their work within the LoRaWAN industry, we are incredibly excited to be working with such a well established brand.

"As specialists in LoRaWAN technologies and edge-computing, the MultiTech LoRaWAN gateway range ticks all of the boxes. We hope that this addition to our portfolio will help to bring even more IoT projects to life."

"We look forward to working with Alliot to extend the reach of MultiTech products to new markets and use cases," said Neil Carey, Regional Sales Director at MultiTech. "By adding Alliot to our distribution channel, we can better enable customers adopting the latest LPWA technologies with expanded local expertise."
